Welcome to Summer Reading 2020!

1. The challenge runs from June 25th to August 15th. If you want to participate, you can join any time.
2. If you are unable to complete one of the non-reading activities but need the square for to complete a row or column, you can substitute "Read for 30 Minutes" for that square.
3. You can use one book to cross off multiple squares. For example, if you read a book that you selected from our "New Books" display with a cover that is your favorite color and it happens to be non-fiction, you could cross off 3 squares.
4. Bring your game card to the library to have the librarians stamp your completed squares, or cross off the squares on your own if you choose. This is totally on the honor system 😊 Get a raffle ticket for each square completed. You can also sign up with the READsquared app, or online at ingallslibrary.readsquared.com.
5. You can also get a raffle ticket for each book you read. Keep track below, or on the attached sheet.
6. On August 15th, one winner will be drawn from all raffle tickets, and will win a Kindle Paperwhite. (I'm hoping that we never have to shutter the library again because of a pandemic....but if we do, an e-reader may come in handy!)
7. This has been a strange year....and I hope our summer reading program provides a little distraction!
